Police raid cannabis factory

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertssexnews.co.uk

MORE than 500 cannabis plants have been found growing in an industrial warehouse in Harlow.

Police who raided the premises in West Road at lunchtime on Monday arrested a 29-year-old man.

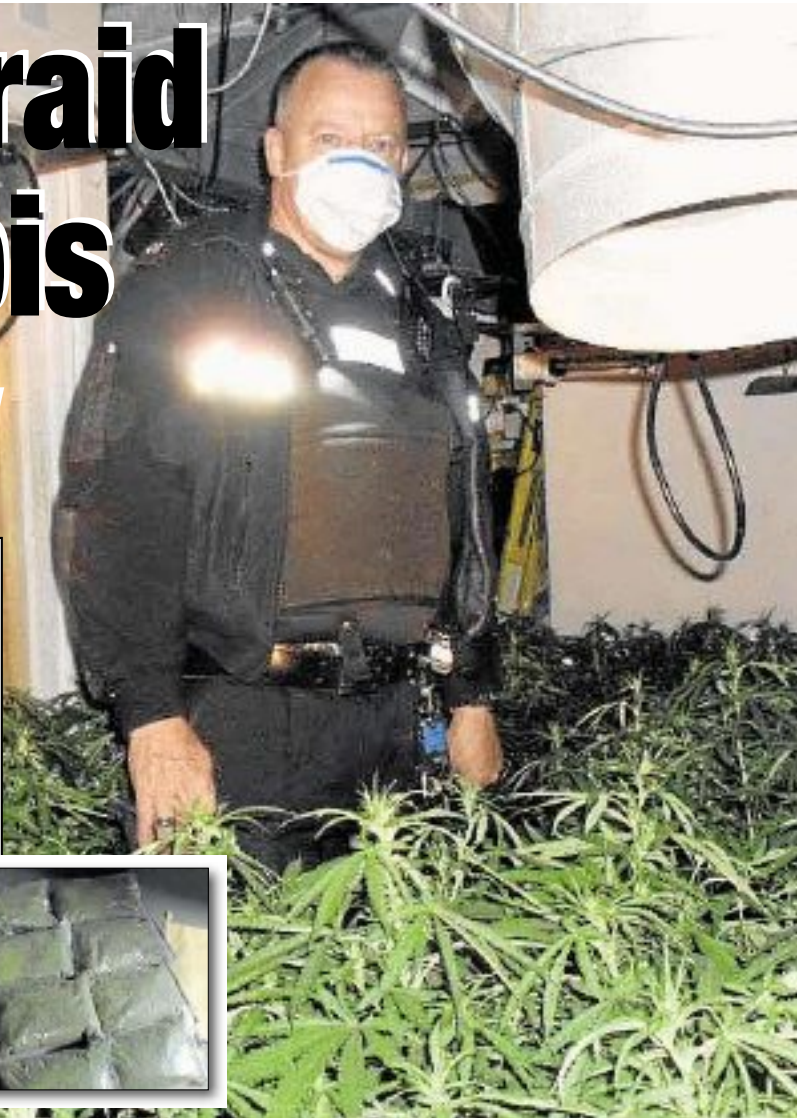

The drugs have an estimated street value of more than £200,000.

Sergeant Rob Cox of the Harlow Neighbourhood Police Team said: "We would urge members of the public to report any suspicion they might have about cannabis cultivations being set up in their area."

"We will always take these reports seriously and even if action is not immediately evident, the information is always logged and acted upon at some stage once we have enough information to gain a warrant."

● Hung Hoang, of no fixed address, appeared at Chelmsford Magistrates Court yesterday (Wednesday) charged with being concerned in the production of a controlled drug, producing a controlled drug, abstracting electricity, possession of a controlled class A drug and possession with intent to supply a controlled class B drug.

He was remanded in custody.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Barn Mead blaze suspect granted extension of bail

A MAN arrested earlier this year in connection with an arson attack which claimed the lives of a mother and her five children has had his bail extended until October 16.

The 20-year-old, who has not been named but lives in Harlow, was arrested in May on suspicion of murder, attempted murder, arson and burglary following the fatal house fire in Barn Mead on October 15 last year.

Sabah Usmani (44) and children Hira (12), Sohaib (11), Muneeb (9), Rayyan (6) and Maheen (3) all died after the blaze ripped through the family's end-of-terrace home.

The children's father, Dr Abdul Shakoor, survived the fire after jumping from a first-floor window to raise the alarm.

Bus roadshow in town to publicise housing scheme

RESIDENTS are being asked to jump on board as property developers behind proposals to build 10,000 homes on countryside to the north of Harlow bring a double decker bus roadshow to town.

Representatives of Places for People will be showcasing their masterplan for the Gilston Park Estate, with a team on hand to answer questions and provide further information about the proposals.

The bus will be parked at Sainsbury's in Fifth Avenue tomorrow (Friday) from 9.30-11.30am and at Sawbridgeworth Memorial Hall from 1.30-3.30pm. It will also be in Market Square, Harlow, from noon-4pm on Saturday (September 21).

New look on the cards for Post Office in Old Harlow

THE Post Office in Old Harlow will be getting a facelift following a new investment scheme.

The High Street premises will be converted into a new-style branch after receiving funding from a Government scheme that will see almost half of Post Office branches being refurbished.

Customers will be able to take advantage of longer opening hours and an easier, more modern design.

MP claims victory in students' free meals campaign

HARLOW MP Robert Halfon said he was "over the moon" following the announcement that the Government will be extending free school meals to disadvantaged students at further education colleges.

Mr Halfon and Scunthorpe Labour MP Nic Dakin have been pushing for a change in the rules which entitled qualifying students in school sixth forms to receive meals while stopping those studying at FE colleges.

Speaking in a parliamentary debate earlier this year, Mr Halfon said the loophole has damaged the life-chances of young people at Harlow College and elsewhere for too long.

The issue gained cross-party support from 75 other MPs who secured a backbench business debate on free school meal provision for FE students. This was due to take place on October 10.

But speaking after the announcement by Deputy Prime Minister Nick Clegg at the Liberal Democrat party conference on Tuesday, Mr Halfon said: "I am over the moon at the decision."

"This is great news for students at Further Education colleges and I am pleased that students at Harlow College will benefit from this move."

"The Government has listened after my long campaign with Nic Dakin and others, which included a Commons motion and a planned debate supported by 75 MPs."

"The Government's position has moved just weeks before the debate was due to take place which goes to show that MPs can change Government opinion."

Harlow College has previously estimated that up to 350 of its students could qualify for free school meals.

Principal Karen Spencer said: "This is fantastic news and will benefit thousands of students nationwide including several hundred of our Harlow College learners and their families."

"As educationalists we know the benefits of good nutrition in helping people learn more effectively and how this can help them be more successful."

"The staff, students and governors of the college would like to congratulate Robert Halfon for leading this successful campaign."

Competition success for hairdressing trainee

A HAIRDRESSING trainee proved a cut above the rest in a national competition for apprentices.

Lisa Gallagher, who is currently studying at the Harlow-based Hairdressing Training Academy in The Rows and works at a salon in Bishops Stortford, beat competition from many of the country's top salons to be named category winner of the Central Joshua Galvin Photographic Hairdressing Awards 2013.

Lisa (35) won the bridal category which was judged by Trevor Sorbie.

Lisa said: "Winning a prize in the competition was an overwhelming experience. I was thrilled to be overall winner in my category and take home a superb trophy and a very expensive pair of Japanese hairdressing scissors."

"Although it was quite a nerve-racking experience, winning was amazing. It has inspired me to enter more competitions and really push myself in terms of my career."

HTA principal Kim Allan, said: "We are very proud of Lisa, who has worked hard to achieve this prestigious award."

"All of us at HTA feel privileged to provide quality training which creates career opportunities for our future young people in the Harlow and Bishop's Stortford area."

Medical centre location is currently in an awful state

SIR, It is hard to believe that anyone would be against a new Lister House Health Centre being situated on a Green Wedge in Harlow. (Letters, September 12).

Has Yoshimi Hester visited this area recently? It is not looked after at all, the tennis courts are in a terrible state and the surrounding greenery is left in an awful state, too. The whole area as it stands is abused.

My great-grandchildren visited us during the children's summer holidays and visited the paddling pool and park at Staple Tye, both of which were full of broken glass resulting in the youngest having to take a trip to A&E.

On talking to other locals at the park and pool, it is clear that the facilities are abused by alcoholics and drug addicts who leave behind their mess for others to be injured on.

At least with a new health centre at this location there will be much better control of the area.

Charmain Izzard
via email

We've waited long enough so now let's just get it built

SIR, I note in your report about the plans for the Lister House that Paul Young of CAMM Architects is quoted as saying: "The review of the provision of premises ... has been challenging over the last few years" while a Harlow Health Centres Trust spokeswoman said: "Decisions have been on-going for several years."

For God's sake just get the place built. This is not HS2. Or am I to look forward to more decisions on-going good-forward?

Stephen Archer
Old Orchard, Harlow

We must keep town's open spaces for people to enjoy

SIR, I agree with Yoshimi Hester - losing more green space is so wrong.

Sir Frederick Gibberd planned this town to have parks, sculpted green spaces, varieties of trees and places of recreation.

Were the tennis courts deliberately neglected? The ski slope has gone, the swimming pool (that was basic and affordable) has been replaced by a more expensive sports centre.

Keep places free for people to enjoy fresh air, for children to run around, for dog walkers, for local people. It's why people moved out of London in the first place.

M. Daum
via email

No need for medical centre to be built on Green Wedge

SIR, In your article concerning the proposal to build a replacement for the current Lister House Health Centre (Star, September 5) you asked for opinions from readers.

My opinion is that to construct a major building on one of Harlow's designated Green Wedges drives a coach and horses through the council's planning policy of allowing only minor additions to existing buildings within the Green Wedges.

Instead of this cop-out scheme they should bite the bullet and deal properly with the planning of Staple Tye as a whole.

Properly planned, there is room on the current Lister House site to expand the practice but space here does not permit me to expand on my ideas. Suffice it to say, Staple Tye needs a plan and not the piecemeal process that pertains.

John Curry

SIR, Conservatives' good stewardship of Harlow Council's finances from 2008-12, enabled us to earmark a £220,000 Environment Improvement Fund for projects agreed with ward councillors by local residents.

Since Labour took control of the council I have asked time and again about progress on this £20,000 per ward but received a string of excuses about delays in establishing costs and whether suggestions meet with numerous conditions they imposed.

I also asked for, and was given, reassurance that this funding will be carried forward to ensure that it is all spent on what residents want.

At a residents' meeting on September 4 I again asked Cllr Phil Waite, Labour's cabinet member for environment, about progress. Again no information about projects and cost but he did reveal that the fund was closed and the underspend is to be returned to the General Fund to bolster council tax spending. He repeated this in answers at full council last Thursday.

So residents who read the council's Harlow Times this week may be as mystified as me to see a two-page spread still advertising this fund and asking residents to contact their ward councillors to find out how £20,000 can benefit their environment. Any who do will be told the money has gone.

In 2008 Conservatives inherited the dreadful result of decades of Harlow's Labour councils' overspending and overtaxing. We discovered the terrible state of Harlow's crematorium accounts, that reserves had been reduced to a dangerous low, we found a hidden report warning of the dangerous condition of the old swimming pool long before it had to be closed, we found they had taken money from a fund earmarked for maintaining Church Langley's environment, and why they had to revise the council's budgets time and again, switching funding around to prop up their out of control spending.

We found there was "no money left" in Harlow a year before the incoming Coalition government was left that infamous note about the nation's finances.

It took Conservatives three years to restore sanity to Harlow Council's budgeting. So it is no surprise to us that Labour has again embarked on rises in council tax, grasping at any money it can to prop up its plans to return Harlow to their Socialist ideal of a town where dependency is their hold on power, where they control housing, where taxation is their only route to financing services and where the council once again employs all the people who provide them.

Cllr Tony Hall (Conservative)
Kingsdon Lane, Harlow

Axe the tax that is hurting the elderly and disabled

SIR, Nationally only one political party has made its opposition to the bedroom tax clear and that is the UK Independence Party.

It is for this reason that Harlow UKIP has written to Harlow Council chief executive Malcolm Morley to support the TUC and its 900+ signature petition against the bedroom tax.

Whilst the Government is right to have spotted the inequality between private and council rents, penalising people using the tax system in this way is totally unfair. It hurts the elderly, the disabled, single parents and so many groups - is it just plain wrong.

It also assumes that smaller properties are freely available for them to move into which they aren't, not in Harlow.

All attempts to change people's behaviour using the tax system have failed throughout history and so will this. High petrol tax to reduce car use and force people onto public transport, high cigarette taxes to prevent smoking, high alcohol or unit minimum pricing on alcohol to prevent binge drinking are some examples of failure to show this just doesn't work!

Many in the public believe Labour opposes the bedroom tax but they don't. Shadow cabinet member Helen Goodman said: "We've said the bedroom tax should only apply if people have been offered a smaller place to live and turned it down." Hardly opposition is it?

Locally, Harlow's Labour-run council has said nothing, and the absence of anything from parliamentary candidate Suzy Stride is one of a number of reasons she faces a TUC motion of no confidence.

Up and down the UK 36 councils have told the Coalition to axe this bedroom tax. Harlow UKIP calls on Harlow Council to be number 37.

Mark Gough (UKIP)
Glebelands, Harlow

Pleased council made clear it opposed the bedroom tax

SIR, I am delighted that at last week's council meeting the Labour administration made clear its position on the dreaded bedroom tax - that is to call on the Government to abolish it whilst working with local residents offering advice and assistance to prevent them losing their homes.

Cllr Road Truan stated the council would be working with tenant organisations to call for the repeal of the bedroom tax, communicating the hidden costs and implications of the tax and to work with the Government to provide alternative strategies to address the housing shortage.

Airline growth fuels jobs boost at airport

star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

THOUSANDS of jobs could be created at Stansted Airport following this week's announcement that budget airline Ryanair is planning major growth over the next 10 years.

The long-term agreement with airport owner Manchester Airports Group will see the budget airline increase the number of passengers it serves there by 50 per cent.

The number will grow from the current level of 13.2 million passengers a year to more than 18 million by 2018 and 21 million by 2023.

Stansted Airport is already the biggest single-site employer in the East of England region. Some 10,200 people currently work for the 190 companies based there.

The estimate by Ryanair that some 7,000 new jobs could be created is based on research at international airports which shows 1,000 new posts are created for every one million extra passengers a year.

Stansted's single-runway capacity is 35 million passengers per annum – about twice its current level.

Ryanair chief executive Michael O'Leary said: "This deal will see our Stansted traffic grow by over 50 per cent ... in return for lower costs and more efficient facilities at Stansted."

"This agreement proves how UK airports can flourish when released from the dead hand of the BAA monopoly and is the first dramatic initiative by MAG to reverse seven years of decline, during which Stansted's traffic fell from 23.8m to 17.5m."

"As Stansted's biggest airline, Ryanair looks forward to a decade of growing traffic, routes and jobs at Stansted."

The news has been welcomed by Harlow MP Robert Halfon, who told the Star: "This is absolutely fantastic for Harlow."

"What we have to do is make sure that Harlow people are given these opportunities because what has happened in the past is that just not enough Harlow residents have been employed."

"What we have to do – myself, Harlow Council and the organisation – is to

THE sound of revving car engines and the smell of exhaust fumes filled the air at North Weald Airfield on Sunday as crowds flocked to the high-octane Petrol Fest in aid of the Little Havens children's hospice.

Families mingled with car enthusiasts for the showcase which featured super cars from around the world. Visitors could experience the power of cars including Ferraris, Lamborghinis, Aston Martins and McLarens in a once-in-a-lifetime spin around the track. Off the track the entertainment included fairground rides, thrilling BMX stunt displays and live music.

The event is expected to have raised in the region of £10,000 for the hospice which cares for seriously ill children, and their families, from across Essex including Harlow and Epping.

Event organiser Jason Curtis said: "It was great to see so many families whizzing around the track and enjoying the day.

"Family comes first at Little Havens and whether we care for a child for years, months, weeks or even days, the money raised from this event will make a huge difference to their lives."

Pictured in the F1 McLaren supercar is Bridget Harmer (52), whose husband bought her three supercar rides as a wedding anniversary present.

work together to encourage this."

As part of the deal, Ryanair will encourage other airlines to fly long haul from Stansted.

The long-term growth agreement comes seven months after MAG completed its acquisition of the airport.

Ken O'Toole, MAG's chief commercial officer, said: "The new long-term agreement between Ryanair and MAG at Stansted shows that competition really does work and it represents great news for both passengers and UK businesses."

"The deal secures a new and exciting era for both Ryanair and Stansted, and we're delighted to be supporting the airline's growth over the next 10 years."

He added: "This announcement, coupled with our £80m investment in the terminal, confirms that Ryanair shares our confidence and shows how we are succeeding in transforming Stansted under new ownership."

"Over the next five years MAG wants to make Stansted the best airport in London, so we will continue to compete hard to win business from airlines in our drive for passenger growth and to provide customers with even more choice."

Ryanair has also announced it will be running four new routes - to Lisbon, Bordeaux Dortmund and Rabat in Morocco - from the airport for next summer.

Thief steals handbag from woman in mobility scooter

A THIEF who stole a handbag from a woman in a mobility scooter has been branded "despicable" by police.

The victim, who is in her 40s, was in Bromley Close, Harlow, at about 5.35pm last Wednesday when she was approached from behind by the man.

As he tried to take her handbag from the rear basket of her scooter she tried to stop him by grabbing it, but she was pushed by the thief who then ran off with the bag.

It contained a purse with £100 cash in it. The woman did not suffer any physical injuries.

The suspect is described as white, aged 25-30, of slim build and average height. He had short dark hair and was wearing blue jeans and a dark blue jacket with reflective stripes.

Detective Constable Gav Morris, of Harlow police, said: "This was a particularly despicable crime to target a woman in a mobility scooter and actually push her in order to steal her handbag."

"I would urge anyone who has any information to contact me as soon as possible so we can find the person responsible."

Anyone with information is urged to contact DC Morris on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

EEAST advice on how to spot the symptoms of meningitis

ESSEX ambulance service chiefs are using Meningitis Awareness Week to warn people about the symptoms of the potentially life-threatening disease.

Meningitis is an infection which causes the area around the brain and spinal cord to become swollen.

There are two different types of meningitis - viral and bacterial which, if left untreated, can cause brain damage and blood poisoning.

Marcus Bailey, interim consultant paramedic at the East of England Ambulance Service Trust, said: "It's absolutely vital that people who are suffering from meningitis receive emergency medical treatment immediately to stop the condition worsening."

Symptoms to watch out for include a high temperature, a severe headache, tiredness, a stiff neck, and sensitivity to light. Some people may also develop a distinctive and blotchy rash.

"The quicker it's spotted, the quicker it can be treated and the higher the chances of a full recovery," said Mr Bailey.

Viral meningitis is less serious and is usually treatable at home with rest and painkillers. In severe cases, however, hospital treatment may also be necessary.

Guitar man Mike sings the praises of Voice In A Million

A MUSICIAN from Harlow has written two shows to be staged at Wembley Arena featuring youngsters from across the UK.

Guitarist Mike Jordan was first introduced to the Voice In A Million project last year when he went to see the show. He was so impressed he wrote to the creators with some ideas.

"I sent them an email presenting myself and a few ideas on how they could make it even better," said Mike (56), of The Maples.

The Voice Of A Million choir was started in 2009 by husband and wife Robert and Jo Garofalo. Using their own experiences of adopting a child, they wanted to create a musical highlighting the plight of children in care around the world and the issues and problems facing prospective adopters.

In January 2010 5,000 children took part in the first ever Voice In A Million concert at the O2 Arena. Since then there have been arena shows every year and the choir has also released a studio album called SMILE.

"Robert replied to my email and I ended up proposing a show which they really liked and which will be opening in Wembley Arena next March," said Mike.

"I then had another idea for Voice In A Million and I put it together. Robert and Jo loved it and that will now be opening at Wembley next June."

Mike, who has been playing and teaching guitar professionally since 1976 and who in the past has worked with Tina Turner, Elton John, Thin Lizzy and Bob Geldof, is now the musical director for Voice In A Million.

"It's a fantastic concept and a huge initiative," he said. "Anyone can audition for Voice In A Million and then they are trained and rehearsed for the arena shows."

"It's a great thing to be a part of. The children in the audience at one of the shows could then be in it the following year which is the beauty of Voice In A Million. It's a great show and there's some fantastic talent there."

"One student is currently in the The Lion King in the West End and we have a few people going on the X Factor this year."

As well as writing for Voice In A Million, Mike is also the driving force behind VIAM's newest group.

"We have just launched a new pop group called Ynifiti, a wonderful bunch of singers. They were launched through Stagelt, which is part of the Voice In A Million TV channel, and I'm expecting good things from them. They're a great group."

He added: "Voice in a Million is a fantastic company to be a part of. I'm really enjoying it."

Grateful parents raise cash for baby unit monitor

THE neo-natal intensive care unit at Harlow's Princess Alexandra Hospital has taken delivery of a new piece of equipment paid for with money raised by a family whose daughter spent the first eight weeks of her life there.

Nic Coppola's daughter Lia was born 12 weeks early weighing just 2lb 7oz.

"The early days and weeks of her life were filled with worry and fear for myself and my wife Prina and were extremely crucial for Lia," said Nic, from Cheshunt. "It was a very, very worrying and stressful time, but the unit was calm.

"It was the fact that they eased your worries without telling us that everything would be OK.

"Thankfully, with the wonderful, selfless help of all the doctors and nurses, Lia got through those initial tough times and is now a thriving little baby who has got the rest of her life ahead of her.

"Without this great help from all the staff in NICU she may not have had that chance in life."

Nic decided shortly after Lia was allowed to go home that he would like to raise money for the unit and managed to convince five friends to take part in the Tough Mudder Challenge - a 12-mile obstacle course designed by the Special Forces to test all round strength, stamina, mental grit and camaraderie.

The gruelling military-style course saw participants facing muddy trenches, ice-cold water and narrow tunnels in what has been described as the toughest event on the planet.

He said: "After Lia came home I decided, knowing how much it costs to keep children in the unit, that I would do something for charity.

"It's one of those charities that doesn't get the publicity it deserves. They (the staff) are very selfless; it's not like if I make a mistake at my job and something doesn't get done. If they make a mistake it's very serious.

"They were just amazing and the unit was very calm."

Nic added: "One reason (to take part in the challenge) was that if it inspires one person that has been through the same ordeal to do the same, then great."

Nic - along with Dan Adams, Paul Pannell, Wayne Segust, Simon Moore and Iain Champness - completed the challenge back in May and the grateful parents handed over a cheque for £3,789.50 to the unit on Lia's first birthday.

The money was used to purchase a breathing apparatus monitor which will benefit hundreds of families.

Neo-natal unit manager Anjane Jhurry said: "We were delighted to be able to welcome Nic, Prina and Lia back to the unit and accept their wonderful donation. We are always grateful for the support we receive from fundraising individuals and groups."

Banned driver jailed for high speed chase in a stolen BMW

A BANNED motorist who drove a stolen BMW at speeds of up to 95mph during a police chase through Harlow has been jailed.

Chelmsford Crown Court heard that at the time of the two-mile chase in August, Mitchell Howe was disqualified from driving and over the drink-drive limit.

During the chase the car driven by Howe (21), of Quarry Spring, Harlow, hit a kerb and mounted the pavement.

He was finally stopped and arrested after driving along Fifth Avenue and Edinburgh Way in the vehicle which had been taken during a burglary in Harold Wood the previous evening.

Howe pleaded guilty to charges of aggravated vehicle taking, driving while disqualified and breaching a community order imposed on him for affray.

He was jailed for 12 months for those offences but was given no separate penalties for previously admitted offences of driving with excess alcohol and while uninsured.

Peter Gair, prosecuting, said: "The

COURT REPORTER

BMW was stolen as a result of a burglary in Harold Wood on August 2 when car keys were taken. It was seen on August 3 at about 1.35am.

"There was a police chase at speeds of up to 95mph along roads in Harlow."

Julie Brimble, representing Howe, said in mitigation: "Although he was doing speeds of up to 95 in a 40mph limit there were not many cars around and no-one was injured. However, he fully accepts his driving was dangerous."

She said at the time he had family problems including his relationship with his girlfriend who was suffering post natal depression after the birth of their baby but added he now recognised his responsibilities.

Passing sentence, judge Anthony Goldstaub told Howe: "You drove erratically and dangerously in a 40mph limit at speeds of up to 95 mph. These were serious offences."

COMMUNITY NEWS

A BABY diagnosed with a rare cancer of the eye is the inspiration for a family who will be taking part in a sponsored walk in London.

Jacob Knox-Wright was found to have retinoblastoma when he was just 12 weeks old. The tumour in his right eye was so severe it had to be removed.

He is now undergoing chemotherapy to treat tumours in his left eye and kill off any remaining cancer cells in the right eye.

Tomorrow (Friday) Jacob's mother - Charlene Williams (27), of Fold Croft, Harlow - will be taking part in the Carrots

Nightwalk fundraisers inspired by baby Jacob

Nightwalk in aid of The Childhood Eye Cancer Trust. She will be joined by her sister Sophie Williams (24), their mother Vanda Cross (45) and her friend Adele Corder (27).

"When Jacob was diagnosed it was a horrible time," said Sophie. "Even though he has had his eye removed he is much happier. Chemotherapy is hard but he's doing a lot better."

"We decided to do the six-mile Carrots Walk to do something for the charity. When things like this happen to you, it really hits home.

"We wanted to raise £1,000 between us but everyone has been really kind and we've raised £5,000 which is amazing."

Help needed to sell charity cards

SUMMER is over, winter will soon be here and national Christmas card fundraisers are wasting no time in looking for volunteers.

Cards for Good Causes will be setting up shop in Harlow Library and need volunteers to sell cards for worthy causes.

Area organiser Mary Cronin said: "We are very pleased to be running our card shop in Harlow again this year."

"We are looking for people to help out in the shop. There's always a great atmosphere and volunteers enjoy helping."

"We really rely on our volunteers. Last year Cards for Good Causes helped more than 300 charities across the country."

The Harlow shop will be open from October 31-December 14. To get involved, contact Mary Cronin on (01255) 831262 or Cards for Good Causes on (01264) 361555.

Claire's car park is a fundraiser

THE in-patient ward manager of a centre for adults with mental health problems raised funds by holding a car park collection.

Claire Newman, who works at the Derwent Centre in Harlow, raised £270 with the help of her grandfather and a colleague from drivers parking at Harlow College earlier this month.

Claire said: "Everyone worked really hard and my gramps was really good directing everyone to the spaces."

"It was a great opportunity to raise awareness about mental health and it was great the amount of people who stopped to ask questions."

"The next goal of the newly formed Friends of the Derwent Centre will be to raise funds for the patients' Christmas party."

Keeping a watch to cut down on crime

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertsexnews.co.uk

ORGANISERS of a Neighbourhood Watch scheme in Harlow have launched a recruitment drive to boost numbers.

Members of the scheme act as the eyes and ears of the community, working closely with the police to deter criminals.

Earlier this year Harlow Neighbourhood Watch was awarded a grant of £1,000 from the High Sheriff's Award to purchase anti-burglar window and door alarms. The group is now planning to give out the packs and inform householders on how best to secure their homes.

It hopes the anti-burglar packs along with the launch of its own Neighbourhood Watch e-newsletter will boost the group's numbers.

Secretary Paul Wadley said: "We are trying to increase our membership or to encourage people to set up their own schemes."

"We have a very low number of members in comparison to other towns, which is a shame because the Neighbourhood Watch scheme goes a long way to helping tackle and raising awareness of local crimes."

The recent addition of the online newsletter, which is a joint initiative between Harlow Neighbourhood Watch and Harlow Police, is one way of increasing participation.

Anyone can subscribe to the free fortnightly newsletter which will highlight crimes in the town as well as update subscribers on any urgent, ongoing issues.

"The idea behind the newsletter is so that we can stay connected with residents in a faster, easier way," Mr Wadley added.

"All residents need to do to sign up is provide their email and their postcode so that we can map who has signed up where."

"It's a great scheme that is trying to make the local community feel safer and help residents be more aware of crimes in their area. We welcome anyone who wants to get involved."

To sign up for the newsletter or for more information visit the group's website at www.harlowneighbourhoodwatch.co.uk.

Snooker legend to open PAH fun day

PRINCESS Alexandra Hospital will be welcoming World Snooker champion Ronnie O'Sullivan to open its fundraising fun day later this month.

The free event will feature activities and entertainment including traditional fair games such as guess the cake's weight, a coconut shy and a bottle raffle as well as a barbecue, bouncy castles, circus workshops with trained professionals and hot air balloon rides.

Children can also take along their favourite teddy bears to get a real plaster cast or bandage.

The fun day will take place on Sunday, September 29 and runs from noon-4pm.

St Clare Hospice lottery winners

THE winner of the £1,000 first prize in the St Clare Hospice lottery drawn on Friday, September 13 is the holder of ticket number 367378. The winner lives in Sawbridgeworth.

The second prize of £100 was won by ticket holder 818831, who lives in Harlow.

Pupils thrilled to get letters from William and Kate

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertsessexnews.co.uk

CHILDREN who sent the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge pictures they had drawn to celebrate the arrival of Prince George got a right Royal surprise.

Pupils in Years 2 and 3 at Sheering Primary received individual letters sent to the school in The Street from the Royal couple thanking them all for their pictures of their new-born son.

Following the birth of Prince George in July, the children drew pictures of the new arrival and created a book of their artwork which their class teacher, Jeannine Dooley, sent off to the Royal couple.

"I was completely overwhelmed when I received a reply as inside the package was a letter for each child," said Miss Dooley. "There was also one for me and for my teaching assistant, Amanda Gibson.

ALL SMILES:

"The children were really, really excited to get their letters. They looked a little shocked when I told them they had actually got a letter addressed to each of them.

"I was not expecting that at all and I realise how lucky we are to have even got a reply. I told the children how lucky they were. All the students were holding onto their letters all day like they were gold - it was lovely."

Safety warning from fire service as summer gives way to autumn

WITH summer disappearing and autumn arriving, county fire chiefs are urging people to make sure they are ready for the seasonal change.

As the nights close in and the cold weather begins, Essex Fire and Rescue Service usually reports an increase in calls to domestic incidents caused by candles, heaters, fireplaces and electric blankets.

With heating systems being switched on for the first time in months, now is the time to ensure boilers are entirely safe by getting them serviced by a registered engineer.

"Poorly maintained gas boilers don't just represent a fire risk, there is also the risk of carbon monoxide poisoning," said a spokesman. "Carbon monoxide is a silent killer which seeps into your home without any smell and creates symptoms which can easily be confused with a winter cold.

"Carbon monoxide detectors will warn people of any danger and every home should have one."

Candles should never be left unattended and stood in proper holders. No candle should ever be stood on a flammable surface and always extinguished before they burn into the holder.

It is also important to remember that all candles should be kept away from windows, curtains, children and pets and that night lights can melt plastic surfaces such as the tops of TV or the side of a bath tub.

Heaters should always be positioned with their backs against the wall and, if possible, secured to prevent them from falling over.

Portable gas heaters should have the cylinders stored and changed outside or in a well-ventilated atmosphere. Both gas and paraffin heaters should only be used in a well-ventilated area.

All electric blankets should be checked and the best rule of thumb is that if a blanket is more than 10 years old or shows any sign of wear and tear then it should be replaced immediately.

When buying a new electric blanket make sure it has 'overheat protection', which will cut off the electricity if it becomes too hot. All electric blankets should carry the British Standard Kitemark and the British Electrotechnical Approvals Board (BEAB) symbol on them.

Anyone with an open fire should make sure that they use a fireguard and have their chimney cleaned. Make sure that all fires are fully extinguished before you go to bed.

Divisional officer Neil Fenwick said: "By taking a few simple precautions now you can make sure that you and your family enjoy a safe and cosy winter."

Guest appearance by BGT finalist Francine at support group's fete

BIANCA CASTRO

bianca.castro@hertsexnews.co.uk

A FINALIST in the television show Britain's Got Talent was the star attraction when a Downs Syndrome support group in Harlow held its first summer fete on Saturday to raise funds to continue its work and to start a second group for older children.

Francine Lewis - who impersonated celebrities Alan Carr, Geri Halliwell and Katie Price during her time on the show - made a guest appearance at Upwards With Downs' fundraiser in Old Harlow.

The fete, which is expected to raise £3,500, also featured live music, a bouncy castle, Harlow Falconry's bird display, pony and cart rides, a signing reading class and several stalls.

Upwards With Downs was started by Cristina Griffiths in 2011 after her youngest daughter, Francesca, was diagnosed with the condition.

The group holds a range of activities and classes for youngsters with Downs Syndrome and is now hoping to start a group for older children and their parents.

Cristina said: "We had a fantastic day despite the poor weather and were thrilled to get such an amazing turnout.

"Our total fundraising so far is £2,700 with still more funds to come and we should reach £3,500. We are amazed by everyone's generosity and can't thank everyone enough for helping us.

She added: "Sarah, one of the parents at the group, did a lot of the organising and everyone else has been working really hard to make this a success. It's been a group effort and I'm really pleased that it seems to have paid off."

To donate to the group, visit www.justgiving.com/upwardswithdowns.

PEAR TREE MEAD

Pupils and teachers welcomed a special guest to their PE lessons when they were able to get a coaching session with an Olympics sporting star.

Louise Jukes, who competed in the London 2012 Games as part of Great Britain's handball team, visited the school and held an introductory handball assembly followed by coaching sessions for every year group.

The children were also given the opportunity to try on Louise's opening ceremony jacket and hat during the school assembly.

Pear Tree Mead's PE co-ordinator Laura Tyler said: "I wanted to introduce a new sport, something different that I thought the students would enjoy. and handball fitted that."

"We also wanted to continue the Olympic legacy and we'll be carrying on with handball this term and hold an after-school session. Hopefully we can also take it to other schools.

"The children loved the coaching sessions and the assembly. The older students could use the skills they had already learned like catching, throwing, and spotting and most of them picked it up really quickly."

Day nursery celebrate Ofsted success

RUM TUM TUGGERS The nursery in Riddings Lane, Harlow, decided to celebrate its recent Ofsted inspection success by hosting a fun day for the children.

The bad weather did not dampen moods as youngsters enjoyed face-painting, a bouncy castle and giant indoor games.

Nursery director Jil Pascale said: "The fun day was in aid of our outstanding Ofsted report and the children really enjoyed the day. They had a great time."

She added: "I am really pleased with our Ofsted results. Our staff have all worked so hard to keep up the standards of the nursery. It's hard to get to those standards and maintain them so I'm really proud."

Ms Pascale added: "This result and the reason for the celebrations is thanks to the hard work of our staff and the relationship we have with parents. It's a great place to be."

"The children had a lot of fun and all went home very happy from the day which is the most important thing."

Students treated to healthy food lessons

KINGSMOOR ACADEMY

Students kick started the new school year with a healthy eating-themed assembly and workshop run by Barleylands farm park and craft village.

Pupils were treated to a smoothie and taught where their breakfast comes from during the school-wide assembly.

Classes were then given a workshop on how to create the perfect healthy packed lunch.

Barleylands staff brought resources in directly from the farm based in Billericay to give students a hands-on experience.

Assistant head Caroline Martin: "The Barleylands staff were fantastic. They were so well prepared with numerous resources to enhance understanding and the children had a lot of fun. "The assembly gave children the opportunity to taste a delicious yet healthy smoothie with great ideas for tasty breakfasts in order to come to school ready for the day ahead."

COUNCIL MATTERS

Housing changes will give priority to Harlow people

THE biggest priority for the council is to address the town's housing shortage both now and in the future.

Thousands of homes are needed for residents on the housing register, for residents who want to downsize to a smaller council home, for future generations and for people that will come to Harlow to work.

Small-scale housing developments will only go so far to solve the problem. We know local residents are quite rightly protective of their green spaces, so where do thousands of new homes go?

The council has always supported development on land north of Harlow as long as it benefits Harlow – an extension of the town, homes for our people and infrastructure to improve Harlow.

This week the owners of the land – Places for People – are unveiling proposals for the Gilston Park Estate. These include building up to 10,000 new homes with services to support the new community. Local people are invited to find out more. Places for People will be at Sainsbury's tomorrow and in Market Square on Saturday, so please do pop along and let them know your views.

By Cllr Mark Wilkinson
Leader, Harlow Council

As a short-term measure to address the housing shortage in the town the council is changing the way it allocates housing from the end of this month.

This is in response to a public consultation held last year.

These changes will ensure that those who continue getting council housing will have a strong connection with the town. Applicants must have either lived in Harlow for five years or have a close family member who has lived in the town for five years or have been in permanent employment in Harlow for 12 months.

It is a difficult situation but the changes give priority to local people who are in genuine need of a council home.

We would love to provide homes to everyone who wants one but this just isn't possible at the moment. We know it is also important to residents that Harlow people are the priority.

County reviews its £25m bill for school transport

TWO key consultations about Essex County Council's subsidies for public and school bus services got under way this week.

On Monday County Hall started a six-week formal process into the discretionary elements of its home-to-class transport policy for students.

It has also begun a 12-week consultation on how it provides financial support to local bus services.

The council currently spends more than £25m on ensuring children across the county can attend school. However, it says maintaining expenditure at this level in the current financial climate is unsustainable and is looking at where efficiency savings can be made.

The authority has a number of statutory responsibilities covering the provision of home-to-school transport which are not affected by the consultation but a number of the discretionary elements of the existing policy are under review. These include:

>> Changing the reference to catchment area within the assessment of entitlement to home-to-school transport policy and removing the use of joint catchment areas. Instead it would only provide transport to the nearest school to the home address where statutory walking distances are met.

>> Removing existing transport from routes which are now deemed safe for walking.

>> Withdrawing the provision of transport to low income families whose children attend a selective (grammar) school.

>> Introducing a means-tested assessment for transport provided to pupils in exceptional circumstances.

STAR REPORTER

star@hertsessexnews.co.uk

>> Reviewing the existing post-16 transport provision.

County councillor Ray Gooding, cabinet member for education and lifelong learning, said: "Quite simply we need to save money right across the board and this means a review of the discretionary elements of our home-to-school transport policy."

"We do not have the level of funding to continue providing the same levels of service that we have provided to students in the past. The existing discretionary transport policy is incredibly generous but it is complicated, unfair and outdated."

"We need to review our existing policy to make sure it is simple, fair, consistent and transparent and to ensure that in the long term the local authority can provide for those who need our support the most."

Meanwhile, the council is also reviewing the £7.9m it pays for nearly 200 local bus services which generally run in the evenings, on Sundays or in rural locations.

County councillor Rodney Bass, cabinet member for highways and transportation, said: "We need to review the bus strategy to make sure the services we provide meet the essential travel needs of residents, offer the best value for taxpayers and can be sustained."

"Given the challenging economic climate, we must be realistic and accept that it is likely that not all needs across the county can be met and that the funding available in the coming years will be reduced."

'Mr Blobby' wins ugliest animal title

YOU can't help but feel sorry for the blobfish which has just been voted the ugliest animal in the world.

It lives deep in the ocean near south-eastern Australia where it spends its life in darkness and is often killed after getting caught in fishing nets.

The competition was held by Ugly Animal Preservation Society to draw attention to endangered animals that aren't considered to be cute and cuddly.

The society will now adopt the blobfish as its mascot.

Society president and TV presenter Simon Watt said he hoped the campaign would draw attention to the threats facing these weird and wonderful creatures. The blobfish won the competition by finishing ahead of the other creatures nominated for the award - the kakapo (a flightless parrot), the axolotl (a lizard-like creature that spends its life underwater), the Titicaca water frog and the proboscis monkey.

Eat & drink in style at The John Barleycorn

SITUATED in delightful countryside yet only two miles from Junction 7 of the M11, the John Barleycorn at Threshers Bush is a great place to meet for a drink or dine from the extensive menu.

Low ceilings and exposed oak beams, with plenty of light from the windows overlooking the large garden and patio, add to the charming atmosphere. Outside there are picnic-style tables, parasols, a pond with fountain and well maintained lawns.

Carl and Pauline Yardley, owners for more than 10 years, pride themselves on their high quality, locally sourced produce which is freshly prepared from kitchen to table with the emphasis firmly on flavour as well as outstanding standards of service.

Seasonal dishes are available on the varied menu as well as a daily specials board. There is also a great choice of fish dishes and vegetarian options and a selection of home-made desserts. Most dietary needs can be catered for.

Sunday roast is served from noon until 8pm and is a must. In addition to the a la carte menu, a new bar snacks menu is also available from Tuesday to Saturday lunchtime which includes sandwiches, panini, jacket potatoes and pasta dishes.

The Guide

Chris tells bittersweet story of life and death

A HARLOW actor, writer, and director will be returning to his roots next week when he brings his one-man show to the town's Playhouse theatre.

Chris Lerner, who started his acting career at the Harlow Youth Theatre, has written, and will be performing, An Instinct for Kindness - an intensely moving show about his real-life experience when he accompanied his chronically ill former wife to the Dignitas clinic in Switzerland.

Alison Lee, an actress-turned-teacher, was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis and decided to take her own life at the clinic three years ago.

"When I came back from Switzerland I just found the story was burning a hole in my heart," said Chris, pictured right, who is probably best-remembered for his appearance as Clingfilm in the television series London's Burning.

"Friends and relatives were a mixture of being respectful and curious. I found myself telling pieces of the story and the ironies in it and I just felt it needed to be told. Theatre seemed the most logical way to do it.

"It was heart-wrenching to write and rehearse but it is not a depressing show. People have responded really well to the story and many have said that they come away feeling sad of course, but more uplifted than anything."

The only prop Chris uses on stage during the 75-minute monologue is a single black chair.

He recalls his first meeting with Alison and then continues to the onset of her MS and the complicated - and tiresome - process of travelling to the Dignitas clinic.

"It is one of the oddest things I have ever done," he said. "I've acted and done some stand-up but nothing like this. It's a very personal piece.

"There is humour and a series of ironies. I want people to leave the show feeling that they have met Alison, who was a feisty and positive person.

"The strange thing about the subject is it can be life-affirming. Alison found a way to put her stamp back on her life after MS tried to take it from her.

"I'm nervous about returning to the Playhouse. I did a lot with the Harlow Youth Theatre so it's going to be odd, but I'm looking forward to it."

>> Chris will perform An Instinct for Kindness on Wednesday (September 25) at 7.45pm. Tickets can be bought from the box office by calling (01279) 431945 or visiting www.playhouseharlow.com.

Hardeep's in quite a hurry to cook curry

EVERYONE loves a curry - after all, it is Britain's national dish!

Now broadcaster, writer and Celebrity Masterchef finalist Hardeep Singh Kohli is on a mission to find the best Indian takeaway in the UK.

For his third national tour show which arrives at the Playhouse on Sunday, Hardeep will order a takeaway live on stage for delivery to the theatre, having selected one from audience suggestions submitted via HardeepLive.com.

He will then race against time to cook his own sumptuous feast before the takeaway arrives.

Along the way he'll be sharing recipe tips, anecdotes and wonderful stories of his shared Scottish and Indian heritage.

The show culminates with some lucky audience members sampling both meals!

The performance starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £15. For details or to book, call the box office on (01279) 431945 or visit the website at www.playhouseharlow.com.

Now that's magic! Paul conjures up a new show for 'first' farewell tour

ONE of the UK's favourite entertainers, Paul Daniels, will be packing up his box of tricks for what could be the very last time this autumn.

And fans of all things magical can catch his mammoth national first farewell tour when it arrives at Harlow Playhouse on Wednesday.

In the world of television magic, no-one has enjoyed more success than Paul Daniels.

While on holiday at the age of 11 he read a book on how to entertain at parties and since then he has been entertaining the masses, from tricks for his fellow servicemen during his national service to audiences in their millions on prime time television.

From the moment he burst onto the nation's television screens his shows have topped the ratings.

As part of his new show, Paul will perform a selection of his favourite tricks as well as a number of new ones never before performed in public.

He will of course be joined by wife and stage assistant Debbie McGee for what promises to be another evening of incredible illusion, comedy and amazement.

Ticket prices start at £15.50. For details or to book, call the box office on (01279) 431945.

The Guide*GARDENING & PUZZLES

Storage is the secret to keeping winter larder full

THE warm summer months might be over, but the abundant wild berries, plentiful apples and juicy tomatoes they helped create can make it feel like the sun is still shining.

It's unlikely keen gardeners can manage to eat all this bumper produce immediately though, which is where the art of storage comes in.

Maincrop potatoes and onions will keep well in a cool shed or garage, while garlic should be placed in a cool room in the house. All three should be free of soil and perfectly dry before storing. Onions and garlic can be strung and hung up, while potatoes will be quite happy in paper or a hessian sack, kept in the dark to stop them from sprouting.

If you have blackcurrants, redcurrants and gooseberries, these are perfect for jams, partly because they contain plenty of pectin, the ingredient that makes jam set. With jams or jellies, it is important to sterilise the jars and lids for 10 minutes in boiling water before using them. Most fruits and vegetables will last up to 12 months using this method.

Blackberries and other wild berries have been abundant this year, thanks to last year's wet summer and this year's dry one, and are easy to freeze (although avoid freezing strawberries as they become mushy). Just select the best fruit, spreading the berries in a single layer on a clean tray and put it in the fast-freeze section of the freezer. Once it's frozen, transfer it to bags and return it to the freezer.

If you have too many ripe tomatoes, try drying them in the oven, placing them on a tray at the lowest setting for several hours with the oven door just ajar. Alternatively, skin them by placing them in a bowl of just boiled water, leaving them there for a few minutes, then removing the skin and blitzing them into a puree which can be a base for any Italian passata, which can be frozen. Unripe tomatoes can also be transformed into delicious green tomato chutney, there are umpteen recipes to be found on the internet.

Cucumbers spring to mind when we think of pickling, but many vegetables and fruits can be preserved in this manner including peppers, cauliflower, apples and pears. Peas and green beans should be blanched (dunked in boiling water for several minutes, then plunged into cold water and dried off) before freezing, while courgettes freeze satisfactorily in prepared dishes such as ratatouille, and pumpkins can be made into preserves using lemons, sugar and mixed spices.

Root vegetables such as carrots, parsnips, beetroot and celeriac can generally be left in the ground until required, although try to dig a few up to store in a cool place before winter sets in and the ground becomes too hard to harvest them easily.

To store gluts of apples and pears, you'll need to handle them carefully, placing them in a room with a low, even temperature, good ventilation and a moist atmosphere such as a cellar.

If you are putting apples in your garden shed, wrap them in newspaper (this slows the shrivelling process and isolates rots), put them in boxes, stack them in a cool spot under insulation (such as straw or polystyrene sheets) and cover with polythene.

Check them regularly for signs of disease and remove any which have rotted. Pears prefer slightly drier and warmer conditions and are best not wrapped or stacked.

Clumsy biopic turns Diana into the princess of wails

certificate 12A, 1h53m

IN life, the Princess Of Wales divided opinion. So it's fitting that Oliver Hirschbiegel's drama based on Kate Snell's contentious book Diana: Her Last Love, should have stirred controversy before a single frame has unspooled on the big screen.

Dr Hasnat Khan, the subject of the picture, publicly denounced the film as a fiction while a pre-recorded radio interview with star Naomi Watts ended abruptly with the suggestion that she walked out on DJ Simon Mayo.

Titillate aside, Diana is a trashy made-for-TV movie blessed with an award-winning German director and an Oscar nominated lead actress, whose talents are well and truly squandered.

Both are undone by Stephen Jeffrey's clumsy script while Watts also lacks sexual chemistry with co-star Naveen Andrews, making a mockery of the tears and tantrums when the central relationship ultimately breaks down.

If the public image of the princess was elegance and poise, behind the scenes in Hirschbiegel's film she is emotionally cold and calculating, tipping off a tabloid photographer to her whereabouts so he can splash pictures of her on a yacht with Dodi Fayed (Can Anvar) and pique the jealousy of Dr Khan (Andrews).

Pathetic attempts to win Khan back take a leaf out of the book of Bridget Jones - minus the excessive smoking - including scenes of Diana attempting different dialects in the hope the doctor will take her call.

Opening in Paris in 1997, Hirschbiegel's film reminds two years to sow the seeds of romance between the princess and Khan, part of which involves smuggling him into Kensington Palace in the back of her car.

The pressure of conducting a romance through the omnipresent lens of the media takes its toll and Khan eventually ends the affair, propelling Diana into Dodi's arms.

The film isn't quite the total disaster some critics have suggested but it comes perilously close. Watts offers a passable impression of a global icon, rehearsing answers to Martin Bashir's questions in a mirror so she can perfect her head tilt as she whispers, "There were three of us in this marriage ... so it was a bit crowded."

Andrews fails to live up to his surgeon's nickname as Mr Wonderful and Hirschbiegel's direction lacks energy.

An excessive two-hour running time will test the patience of even the most ardent and devoted Diana fan.

certificate 12A, 1h36m

ADAPTED from the comic book Rest In Peace Department by Peter M Lenkov, R.I.P.D. is an otherworldly action adventure in a similar vein to Men In Black, pairing a grizzled veteran and a gung-ho newcomer in an alternate universe full of ghouls and monsters.

Detectives Nick Walker (Ryan Reynolds) and Bobby Hayes (Kevin Bacon) steal gold bullion found at a drug bust and hide their share. However, Nick gets cold feet and when he threatens to return the booty, Bobby murders him and pins the shooting on a criminal.

As his soul ascends, Nick meets Mildred Proctor (Mary-Louise Parker), director of the Boston division of R.I.P.D. who offers to send the cop back to Earth to capture villainous spirits that failed to successfully cross over from the corporeal world into the afterlife.

Nick is partnered with 19th century former US Marshal Roy Pulsipher (Jeff Bridges), who has a no-nonsense approach to his work.

The veteran and his protege initially rub each the wrong way as they set about their task, but they gradually form a bond as they become embroiled in a far bigger case involving the stolen gold.

Tracey Waples Property Editor

I KNOW I'm not the only one to receive unsolicited emails promising me all sorts of items which I would never have the remotest interest in buying.

Has anyone honestly taken up the offer of a dramatic surgical procedure or a batch of miracle pills that will change their life forever on the back of an unwarranted drop into their inbox?

There must be some level of success or why would the senders keep on trying?

Not in quite the same league as the miracle pills but persistent nonetheless is one particular property developer who has been doing its utmost to convince me that I need to buy a new house RIGHT NOW!

On the back of the Government's Help to Buy initiative, the developer has been pointing out the benefits of taking out a mortgage. Whether I'm buying for the first time or am looking to trade up, I'm assured that it's now or never.

The trouble with the blanket emails is that one size has to fit all and the sender never bothers to find out exactly which bracket you're in.

"Don't miss out - act today" is what I am urged. What will happen if I don't is never made clear but I can only presume it will be Armageddon or a plague of locusts or similar.

Despite all the urging and cajoling, the Help to Buy scheme can work well if you're ready for it. With just a five per cent deposit and a mortgage of 75 per cent of the value of your new home, you can pay just 80 per cent of the property price now. The initiative is available on properties in England up to the value of £600,000.

The key is to be well prepared. Expect interest rates to rise and repayments to go up in the long term and make sure you can cover them.

Sunny aspect for £294,995

THIS extended, semi-detached home in Felmongers, Harlow, has plenty of space for a family and is less than a mile from Harlow Mill train station.

There are three bedrooms as well as an annexe/fourth bedroom with its own entrance.

The house has a sunny aspect with a driveway to the front leading to the garage. There is a side garden which is laid to lawn and a good size, low maintenance rear garden.

To view this property or for further details, contact Apple Tree Homes on (01279) 635975.

Offers in excess of £240,000

THIS mid-terrace home at Torkildsen Way in Harlow, is within easy reach of the town centre, the Town Park and the train station.

It has three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a ground floor cloakroom and an en-suite to the master bedroom.

There is off-road parking and a car port to the rear with space for two cars.

The fenced garden includes a patio area and lawn with flower and shrub borders.

The house has two years of its Barratt guarantee remaining as well as seven years of its NHBC.

Call Charles David Casson Estates on (01279) 600722 for full details.

Period style for £440,000

WITHIN a stone's throw of Old Harlow High Street, this beautiful home at Market Street is believed to date back to around 1700.

As you might expect, the Grade II listed property has some stunning period features such as exposed beams, an Inglenook fireplace and cellar.

There are four bedrooms laid out over three floors as well as a fitted kitchen, dining room and study.

There is an outbuilding and garage to the rear of the garden.

This property is available through Harlow Intercounty on (01279) 639666.

Priced at £324,995

JUST off Old Hall Rise at Church Langley, this detached house is on the market chain-free.

There are four bedrooms, two reception rooms and a double glazed conservatory. The master bedroom has an en-suite shower room.

Outside there is a double garage and driveway. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with plant and shrub borders, a patio, decking, an outside tap and light.

Call Kings Group on (01279) 433033 to book your viewing appointment.

Relative Values

In any market, the conversation often revolves around the likely future of house prices. Will they go up, will they go down, will they remain stable?

Even the most credible authorities tend to disagree on the direction of property prices and sales volumes, so where does that leave the humble consumer? Baffled!

The problem is the source of data that is used to make assumptions about the market is fickle. For example, you could look at the latest Land Registry figures. These record the volumes and prices of sales that completed up to a year after the sale was arranged. But a lot can happen in that time – tax, economic data, interest rate changes and media influence can make a vast difference to buyer sentiment!

You could look at the figures supplied by property portals such as Rightmove. These can be a more accurate reflection of the current situation because they interpret the relationship between the changes in the number of properties on the market and average asking prices, and the number of buyers registering within the previous month. Of course, asking prices are no reflection of sale prices!

Then there are the figures provided by various estate agency chains. However, some of these can be biased because that agency might only specialise in a specific sector.

As estate agents, we have to be acutely aware of what is happening in the Harlow market at a given point in time. We have a huge responsibility to get it right for our clients first time, and we take that responsibility very seriously. Ultimately, we find that the most reliable indicators lie in our ability to interpret the needs and comments of our buyers at local level. After all, it is today's buyers who determine the current value of your property!

A first-class education and I've learned the importance of community

FOLLOWING their visit to Bishop's Stortford College, inspectors from the Independent Schools Inspectorate said that the school, in Maze Green Road, is "an exceptional learning community".

Reflecting on their time at the College, heads of school Ollie George and Lucy Clough encapsulate what makes it special.

For Lucy, one of the school's greatest traits is that you can be part of a close-knit community while still retaining your individuality and personality.

"This year's leavers show just how diverse a year group can be while still having that sense of togetherness and commonality," she said.

Ollie agreed, adding: "Without doubt what makes Bishop's Stortford College so extraordinary are the people within it.

"Not only have I received a first class education over the past 11 years, I have learned the importance of community.

"The school fosters an inherent belief in opportunity and choice; it has taught me that regardless of anyone else's opinions, you should never let someone tell you that you cannot do something.

"Whether you think that's a cliché or not, it is undoubtedly the most prevalent lesson that I learnt in my time here and it's a lesson that I will take with me far beyond the classroom.

"The fact every pupil walks away from Bishop's Stortford College having tried and accomplished a whole host of achievements is testament to this 'can do' spirit."

To discover more, visit www.bishopsstortfordcollege.org and go along to the open morning on Saturday (Sept 21).

The next step to achieving extraordinary things

Open Morning

Saturday 21st September 2013, 9.30am - 1.00pm

Every small step towards success matters. From the very first moment children join the College, they are surrounded by inspiring role models who enable them to develop the same confidence and ability to transform the ordinary into the extraordinary.

Sport and culture valued as equally as academic record

DUNCOMBE, the independent day school in the Bengoe area of Hertford, is acknowledged to be an outstanding school, dedicated to education in the broadest sense and proud of its active partnership with parents.

It offers a supportive, inspiring and challenging learning experience and a firm foundation for the future.

While Duncombe's strong academic record is impressive, its sporting successes and rich cultural life are equally valued. Every pupil is expected and encouraged to give their best, be it academically, creatively, socially or on the games field.

With its breakfast club and extensive after-school programme, Duncombe provides a happy and stimulating environment from 7.30am to 6.00pm. The opportunities continue in the bespoke holiday activities which run for pupils throughout the summer, at Christmas and at Easter.

An open morning will take place on Friday, October 11 and a senior school information fair on Thursday October 17, which are open to all.

For further information call (01992) 414109 or visit www.duncombe-school.co.uk.

All are welcome at Under-5s Fair and open morning

TWO exciting events are taking place at St Nicholas School in Old Harlow over the next few weeks and all are welcome to take part.

The school's inaugural Under-5s Fair this Saturday (September 21) is a free, fun event with quality, eye-catching stallholders.

Day nurseries, children's entertainers, educational groups and local organisations will all be on hand to show their products and services to visitors. Everyone is welcome to attend for a few hours of family fun and to enjoy the school's delightful grounds. The event runs from 10.30am-1.30pm.

The St Nicholas open morning takes place on Saturday, October 12 from 10am-noon, when prospective parents and children are welcome for an informal tour of the school. Taster and display lessons will be taking place throughout the school and senior pupils will conduct guided tours.

For further information on these forthcoming events or for a school prospectus, contact Julie Bradley on (01279) 429910 or at headspa@saintnicholasschool.net.

To take the new virtual tour or to read the recent Independent Schools Inspectorate report in which pupils were judged to be "extremely well educated", visit the school website at www.saintnicholasschool.net.

School doing things differently because they work

ST Christopher School in Letchworth Garden City is a remarkable and unique school.

When it was founded in 1915 the Daily Herald reported that it was based "not on the sameness of children, their conformity to type, but on their differences".

This concept of treating children as individuals was revolutionary at the time and continues to be one of the distinctive characteristics of a St Chris education. St Christopher School does things differently because they work.

Children are allowed to decide what they wear to school because it teaches them to be self-reliant and to make informed choices.

Everyone is called by their first names (pupils and teaching staff alike) because the school has found that this promotes better relationships between children and teachers, based on mutual trust.

Parents also report that the use of first names makes conversations with teachers easier and more productive.

GCSE and A-level examination results are excellent, with more than 70 per cent of grades at A-level and GCSE being A*, A or B.

Well-established school with reputation for excellence

THE Bishop's Stortford High School is a successful and well-established school with a reputation for excellence.

Proud of its motto – Respice, Aspice, Prospice (look to the past, look to the present and look to the future) – the school is renowned for providing an all-round education. Its guiding principles are academic excellence and personal fulfilment within a forward-looking and disciplined environment.

Prioritising people and relationships ensures the school maintains a strong ethos, high standards and has the solid foundations needed for exam success and personal development.

Academic attainment is a natural result in schools such as this, which has a focus on engendering good character amongst pupils.

The school offers opportunities for all and its outstanding range of extra-curricular activities complements the work in the classroom to produce well-rounded young adults with a sense of pride in the school, themselves and the community.

The Bishop's Stortford High School wants all of the students who attend to enjoy their school days and become thoughtful, articulate, confident, well-rounded young adults with a sense of pride in the school, themselves and the community.

The vital trinity of students, teachers and parents working together to create a mutually supportive community in which every student is valued, respected and cherished is alive and flourishing throughout the school.

Exciting new phase for school at forefront of education

NOW in its 26th year, Howe Green House at Great Hallingbury continues to go from strength to strength.

Following inspection in November 2011 by the Independent Schools Inspectorate, the school was thrilled to be awarded 'excellent' in every category.

A proactive governing board works with the headmaster to ensure the school continues to be at the forefront of education.

A wonderful new purpose-built junior facility known as the Cedar Wall Building was opened earlier in the year.

Work to convert the old junior building means that a new and much larger ICT suite and library will be ready for the start of the new academic year.

Headmaster Graham Gorton said: "This is an exciting new phase for our school as the new teaching areas further enhance the provision whilst retaining small classes with the family at the heart of the school's community."

Emphasis on high-quality teaching and staff support

2013 has seen another year of excellent results for Herts & Essex High School, with particularly impressive increases in the numbers of students achieving A*-B grades at GCSE and A*/A at A-level – confirmation of the excellent value the school is able to add, even for students already expected to do well.

The school ensures this level of attainment begins in Year 7 with a thorough induction programme and superb extra-curricular opportunities, making students feel at home and ready to learn.

Students' potential is quickly identified and girls become independent learners during Key Stage 3. They continue to be stretched and challenged at GCSE before joining the school's flourishing sixth form, from where they can move on to the country's top universities.

A traditional approach, with emphasis on high-quality teaching and support from dedicated staff, makes Herts & Essex the right choice for young women looking to achieve the highest standards.

Traditional values and innovative teaching and learning

SIMON Balle School in Hertford is a forward-looking school with a clear sense of community and identity. Students are set challenging academic and personal targets and given the inspiration and motivation to succeed. They benefit from a traditional curriculum coupled with numerous enrichment opportunities.

The school combines traditional values with innovative and up-to-date teaching and learning.

Simon Balle is a unique place as it is a fusion of academic excellence with a strong focus on individual development. The pastoral support, care and guidance are outstanding and well-being is a key aspect of the school's work.

Simon Balle is a very well-resourced school with many specialist classrooms as well as sophisticated ICT and digital technologies. There is a stimulating physical environment which is the key to effective learning.

Students leave Simon Balle as mature young people who can think creatively and solve problems. They are ready to go out into the competitive world with skills, attributes and behaviour for the 21st century.

Centre offers wide-ranging extra-curricular programme

DESCRIBED as "excellent" in a recent inspection by the Independent Schools Inspectorate, there are many reasons to choose Cambridge Centre for Sixth Form Studies (CCSS).

CCSS has very small class sizes – on average just five students in each – and the majority of students go on to further their studies at a British university.

Around 40 per cent of students are from the East of England region, and of the international students, only a small number is admitted from each country, ensuring CCSS remains cosmopolitan.

The Centre's one- and two-year A-level programmes are particularly popular. There are around 30 subjects on offer with a great deal of flexibility in letting students choose their own combinations. There is also a wide-ranging extra-curricular programme with activities for everyone. Past trips have included destinations such as Istanbul and Australia.

The perfect opportunity to find out more is to go along to CCSS's next open event on Thursday, October 10. Then you'll be able to meet staff and students and see the teaching buildings. To attend, visit www.ccss.co.uk.

Helping children to develop a lifelong love of learning

OUR Lady of Fatima Multi Academy Trust is a happy place with an environment in which children can thrive.

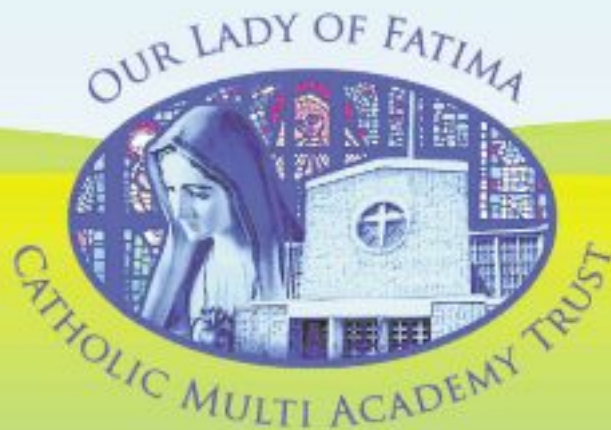

Each child in each of the academies is an individual and they are encouraged to reach their full potential. The Trust provides a wide range of opportunities to inspire children, whatever their interests and talents. They are taught the love of God and helped to develop a lifelong love of learning.

There is a calm, organised and orderly atmosphere in which the children behave well and where individuals – staff and children alike – share a common respect for one another.

Our Lady of Fatima Multi Academy Trust recognises the importance of the partnership between home and school and works closely with its parishes. It has established successful support programmes and Gifted and Talented programmes.

This year 100 per cent of the students entered and achieved Level 6 for maths.

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle. That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves that the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and so is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

HAPPY DAYS: Hawks players celebrate a goal against Lowestoft Town in Saturday's FA Cup win

(Pic: Vikki Lince)

Heybridge next for Hawks after massive Cup upset

HARLOW Town will look to avenge their late league defeat to Heybridge Swifts when the two teams meet in the FA Cup second qualifying round at Barrows Farm on Saturday September 28.

This was after the Hawks pulled off a stunning upset when they came from behind to beat Ryman League premier division side Lowestoft Town 2-1 at home in the first qualifying round of the FA Cup last Saturday.

In winning, the Hawks defeated a side that play a division above them in the non-League pyramid and earned another £3,000 in prize money.

Lowestoft had also narrowly missed out on promotion to the Skril South, the same division as Harlow's neighbours Bishop's Stortford, after losing in the play-offs.

Harlow had picked up £1,900 after winning their previous FA Cup tie, so have already amassed nearly £5,000 in prize money alone.

Hawks boss Danny Chapman was at his sister's wedding and the team was run by his assistant Paul West-Hook in his absence.

West-Hook said: "That was a very good result and a very good team performance. You could see at the end that their chests were out and they felt they had achieved something."

"It was also good to win the prize money we did after what has been invested into the club [by the owners]."

Lowestoft went ahead in the 21st minute. A cross from the right found Michael Frew who dropped his shoulder before curling in a shot from 18 yards.

West-Hook said: "We kept them to one real chance in the first half and they took their goal well. We were a bit over-run in the first half through the middle so we changed it a bit and brought Robbie Martin into the middle and that helped us get into the game."

"It helped to get players like Junior Dadson and Alex Read on the ball."

Harlow equalised in the 69th minute. A move down the left saw Shaun Gliddon release Dadson who then delivered a cross which striker Leon Antoine stabbed home from seven yards.

The winner came in the 73rd minute. A Martin corner was flicked on by Darren Williams at one post and Read popped up at the other post to finish from a yard out.

West-Hook added: "We deserved it. There was nothing desperate about our defending and we took everything that was thrown at us."

"When you have players like Leon and Alex who can take chances you know you have a chance and that is what happened."

Harlow's tie against Heybridge comes after they lost 2-1 away to their Essex rivals a fortnight ago. The Hawks conceded an 87th-minute winner after going down to 10 men when Martin was sent off.

HARLOW TN: May, Barnard, Parry, Gliddon, D. Williams, Blewitt, Dadson (McKenzie 81), Muguo, Read, Antoine, Martin. Subs not used: Akande, S. Williams, Alexandersson, Curley.

Att: 236.

Stallions shine

Keeper scores a goal!

GOALKEEPER Jason Hardy repeated a feat managed by the likes of Pat Jennings and Paul Robinson when he scored direct from a goal kick as Harlow Police made it three wins in three matches after an 8-2 win against Ashfield Albion on Sunday in the Harlow & District Football League division three.

A hat-trick from Gavin Brooke, a brace from Kieran Gleeson and goals from Claudio de Franca, Michael Gliddon and the bizarre effort from Hardy made sure of the victory.

Turnbull victorious in Sevenoaks test

SIXTEEN Stort Valley Angling Society members fished Boughbeechee Reservoir near Sevenoaks in their latest outing.

Excellent long range feeder fishing saw Steve Turnbull win with 25lbs 4ozs of bream and skimmers.

Mick Westby, chairman of the Harlow club, was second, landing 19lbs 10z, just 6ozs ahead of Bob Groom in third spot.

Nine of the anglers managed double figure weights.

The popular Dents Farm in Norfolk was the next venue visited by SVAS members.

Kevin Shaw landed two decent carp from the margins, plus some skimmers giving him a winning weight of 47lbs 10z.

Danny Cruse filled second spot, landing 27lbs13 ozs, just 4 ozs ahead of Colin Cotterell in third place.

The Lea Cup at Rye House was won by Danny Cruse, who fished red maggot, using pole and feeder tactics, for a mixed bag of mostly roach, perch and skimmers but also including a fine 6lbs 8oz bream, for a victorious haul of 14lbs 11ozs.

GB top five for Gab

GABRIELLA Cowley has completed a phenomenal year by finishing in the top five in the British women's order of merit table for golfers.

The 17-year-old Harlow golfer enjoyed a brilliant 2013, securing a place in the England team and competing at the British Open, where she missed the cut.

Her team was fourth in the European Open in Sweden.

She also played for England in the Girls' Home Internationals at the St Anne's Old Links in Lancashire.

Gabriella, of Threshers Bush, was fifth in the order of merit table behind winner Alex Peters.

The Brocket Hall Golf Club member is part of the Jaguar Academy of Sport Rising Star initiative and recently attended a talent day with patrons and ambassadors including athletes Dame Kelly Holmes, Denise Lewis and Jade Jones, plus Manchester United footballer Rio Ferdinand.

Four trophies as HRC impress at Ingatestone

RUNNING

HARLOW Running Club members excelled at the hilly Ingatestone 5 Mile race on Sunday morning, picking up three individual and one team trophy.

Lyndon Cooper was first Harlow finisher in 11th place in an excellent personal best (PB) time for the distance of 28 minutes and 48 seconds. He was followed home by Jamie Jephcott (22nd, 31.31).

Jamie's son Daniel (44th, 34.11) took the U-20 trophy.

Veteran John Tennant (48th, 34.26) won the 60 years trophy.

Other Harlow runners were Colin Moody (57th, 35.45) and Robin Lozeau (84th, 39.03).

Dionne Jones was 8th woman and secured the veteran 35 trophy in a superb time of 35.35. She was followed by Catherine Ridge (11th, 38.34) and Joy Hale (44.30).

These three runners combined to take a trophy for third place in the women's team event.

On Saturday morning at the Gunpowder Park 5km Run at Waltham Abbey, Harlow's Jamie Jephcott finished in third place out of 85 finishers in a brilliant 19.19. He was followed home by son Daniel (6th, 20.31 PB) to create a new HRC U-20 record.

Other HRC runners were: John Bull (10th, 21.18), Graham Saville (21st, 23.31), Robin Lozeau (24th, 23.43), Debbie Barry (39th, 25.55) and Jane Carey (47th, 27.10 PB).

Bauer and Snook put athletic club on a high

BOTH ends of the spectrum at Harlow Athletic Club had reasons to celebrate after success in track and field events.

Veteran athlete Dave Bauer won both his favoured discus and the shot put 45+years events at the English National Masters Track & Field Championships at Alexander Stadium, Birmingham on Friday.

This came soon after teenage rising star Will Snook secured a brilliant second place on his debut for Essex.

Bauer's national event was held late this year to enable veterans the chance to compete in a late event to prepare for the World Championships in Brazil next month.

Despite the rain and wind, Bauer (47) managed to throw 37.18 metres in the discus on the Saturday to seal the gold medal.

He did this despite all competitors being hampered by the wet conditions, which soaked the throwing circle and hindered all the competitors.

On the Sunday, Bauer competed in the hammer event and threw 34.61m for fourth place, despite a hip injury.

Soon after this Bauer, of Quarry Spring, took part in the shot put event, where he threw a distance of 10.64m, despite a driving headwind and achieved an excellent win.

PAST AND PRESENT: Harlow's Will Snook and Dave Bauer

Bauer also secured second spot in the heavy hammer (35 pound weight) throw, a superb achievement in the heavy rain and dangerous conditions.

He recorded 10.76m, close to his best.

"It has been a very long, but successful year for me and my body now needs a long rest!" he joked.

Meanwhile, at a windswept Sandy track in Bedfordshire, several Harlow athletes were selected to represent Essex senior men's and senior women's teams.

Snook won his first Essex vest and placed second in the A-string 400m in a PB of 50.4 seconds.

In the women's competition, which saw Essex win the Bemax Trophy for the fifth time in last six years, North Weald athlete Joanne Ryan was disqualified in the A-string 200m, but responded brilliantly by anchoring Essex home in both the 4x100 and 4x400 relays in first place.

Three other Harlow athletes also represented Essex.

Naomi Harryman (15) has enjoyed an excellent season and placed second in the A-string long jump with a leap of 5.24m.

Eleanor Moss (16), a Passmores student, was second in the A javelin with a PB of 31.61m.

Alicia McCardell (16), a Mark Hall student, was third in the B-string 1,500m in 5 mins, 29 secs.

Stephanie Fuller, a Harlow AC member, was fourth in the B hammer in 33.12m.

Essex won the women's event and the senior men were second out of the six counties who contested this event.

● DAVE Bauer competed in the Eastern Veterans Championships final at Bedford for Chelmsford.

He threw the hammer a near PB of 36.53 metres for first place.

Bauer then threw the shot put 10.59m for third place.

He then threw the discus 38.52m for first place in rain-hit conditions.

He was representing Chelmsford AC's men's team, who were 5th of 8 teams.

Chelsea legend lights up golf evening

A VISIT from Chelsea legend Ron 'Chopper' Harris lit up a society finals days at Harlow's Canons Brook Golf Club.

Forty-two golfers from the Elizabeth Way club attended the final all day competition of the Thorbrook Golf Society last Thursday.

But the treat came afterwards when the society listened to tales from Harris' Chelsea playing days.

The footballer, an infamous name in the 1960s and '70s with his thunderous tackles at the back at Stamford Bridge, regaled the golfers with amusing stories of his football career.

The FA Cup also made an appearance at the club, and members were able to have their photograph taken with it.

Harris played in the famous 1970 Cup Final win against Leeds United.

Organiser Steve Cox said: "George Best was one of the greatest players he came up against but the best quote was from Tommy Docherty when he managed Chelsea. He called Ron over before the game and said 'make sure you get all your late tackles in early'."

Prior to this there was a thrilling day of golf at Canons Brook with two trophies competed for and played in great spirit.

The Donellan Cup was won in the morning by Kevin Sparling with 38 stableford points over 18 holes and the Darnley Cup was won in the afternoon by John Weeks, who scored 35 points over 14 holes playing off a 6 handicap.

"The weather stayed kind for the golf and then the evening saw a sit down meal for 49 guests who were entertained afterwards by a fantastic comedian, Micky Pugh," said Cox.

"The night was not only a great success for the attendees but charities also were winners as St Clare's Hospice and the Lennox Lewis Charity both received several hundred pounds each as a result of raffles and auctions.

"This was a great day of golf rounded off with some great entertainment. My thanks to Micky and Ron for making it such a success."

Fans target Spurs star

THE brother of Adam Smith was furious after the Spurs star was targeted by fans while playing on loan for Derby at former club Millwall at the New Den.

The 22-year-old right-back, who studied at Leventhorpe School in Sawbridgeworth, appeared to have objects thrown at him from the crowd during the Sky Bet Championship match on Saturday, which Derby went on to win 5-1.

The England U-21 star, whose family live in Matching Tye, enjoyed a successful loan spell at Millwall last season.

Objects were hurled at Smith as he went to take a throw-in. He was substituted for his safety.

His older brother Bradley, 24, was in the stands watching the game. "He got struck on the head. It's disgusting really. Adam took the ball around two players on the outside and then the ball went off for a throw.

"Some fans went down to the front [of the stand]. There were about 50 of them. Luckily they could not grab him."

"Millwall were upset at being 3-0 down and they took it out on Adam. They shouted abuse at him.

"It is shocking. I was telling the steward to get the police there [to where the trouble was].

"They were throwing glass bottles and coins. How can that not be dangerous?"

Bradley added: "A lot of people do not understand the abuse they [the players] get on and off the field.

"They get it on Twitter as well. It is terrible."

GB star Pitman on top of the world

BY ALAN SCOTT

alan.scott@hertsessexnews.co.uk

FAITH Pitman firmly put behind her a frustrating 2012 when she narrowly missed out on making the Great Britain team for the Olympics by securing a career best victory on the first day of the Rijeka Grand Prix.

The 28-year-old Harlow judo star had struck gold in her under 63kg category at the San Salvador Continental open earlier this year, and followed that up with her finest result to date with a Grand Prix gold, her first IJF World Tour medal, this time in Croatia.

The Rijeka Grand Prix is an IJF World Tour event, with plenty of valuable ranking points on offer.

Fighting for Britain in the women's -63kg category, Pitman, of Hookfield, started in fine form by beating home judoka Andreja Dakovic by a waza-ari and yuko in the first round.

The judoka then claimed a late waza-ari victory over Hannah Martin of the USA for a place in the semi-final.

She then saw off Frenchwoman Anne-Laure Bellard with a victory by an ippon to set up a final against Spain's Isabel Puche.

Pitman started well against Puche and countered, winning by an ippon.

Great Britain Lead Women's Coach, Kate Howey, said: "It was a great performance by Faith today. She dominated from start to finish and put in a solid display. She showed that she can win in both tachi waza [final] and ne-waza [semi-final].

"She will take the confidence gained here onto Rome next month."

GOLD FEVER: Harlow's Faith Pitman, seen here in the final against Spain's Isabel Puche, achieved her best career win when she triumphed in the world-ranking event in Croatia. Inset, with her medal (s)

Pitman can now look forward to the European Open in the Italian capital Rome next month.

The West Essex Judo Club member said: "I feel really happy with my performance today.

"This is the biggest win of my career so far and I hope I will take this form on to Rome next month."

Rams start season with win

THE Rams produced an excellent performance on the opening day of the new RFU London division three north east season to beat Canvey Island 33-12 at home.

Before kick-off a minute's silence was held for club stalwart Alan Webb, who died last month.

Kain Claridge at No. 8 picked up and crashed over for an early try. Michael Dobson converted this and a penalty.

Dobson dummied a drop goal attempt and then broke, sidestepping two defenders to touch down an excellent unconverted try.

Dobson added another penalty before the break, before the hosts scored another excellent try. From a scrum, Claridge peeled off and broke to touch down in the corner.

Two Canvey tries followed Dobson's drop goal. Late on, Claridge added a fourth converted try for a bonus point.

HARLOW: Ephgrave, Roze, Stonehouse, Twiner, Palmer, Roberts, Drake, Claridge, Powell, Dobson, Grimley, Heapy, L. Bowering, Webb, Mackie. Subs: M. Bowering, White, Powell.
